One thing you can do today that will make a difference....

...join the campaign for justice for Palestine

Last year, Israel's attack on the Freedom Flotilla created a tsunami of support for Palestine. We saw how the actions of 700 peace activists, supported by millions of us across the world, created irreparable cracks in Israel's blockade on Gaza, and raised international pressure to support Palestinian rights.

Since then Israel has continued to take Palestinian lives, expel families from their homes and settle on Palestinian land, with apparent impunity. You may feel there is little that you can do to change this - but together we can.

We have seen how the anti-apartheid movement in Britain played a vital role in bringing down apartheid in South Africa. The cause of Palestine is the international issue of our time, uniting all who stand against occupation, racism and injustice.

From a campaign with very limited resources, the Palestine Solidarity Campaign has grown to become the leading solidarity movement in Britain.

We are acting to ensure that maximum pressure is brought to bear upon the British government to end Israel's war crimes, occupation and violations of human rights law and UN resolutions.

We have a responsibility, and an opportunity, to end injustice and oppression by mobilising civil society. Without a political solution, the issue of Palestine will continue to fester at the heart of Middle East politics, to the shame of Britain and all western powers supporting Israeli policies.

Through our members, PSC branches and affiliates, we have achieved a great deal. But we need your help to continue our work.
